The Rebel Democracy.

The relations existing between Jeff Davis and the so-called Democratic supporters of Geo. B. McClellan could not, under any circumstances, be more intimate than they are to-day. They are identical in sympathy and purpose. The Democrats alias McClellan infinite men alias copperheads alias traitors in the North, would rejoice in their inmost gizzards to see the Union destroyed, its armies defeated, its homes devastated, the glorious guardian bird of Liberty shot by guerrillas from his "eyrie in the sun," and the Stars and Stripes—proud emblem of our nationality—trailed in the dust, a besmeared and muddy rag. Ask any of the treacherous horde, who commenced this war, and they will promptly reply, "Abraham Lincoln!" And the great majority of them believe it. They have been told so by their "Democratic" party leaders, and as they have also been told that it is a criminal offense to attend a meeting of Union men—or in their refined jargon, "d—d abolitionists," they believe whatever they are told, never hear the other side, cannot read or write, and if they can, are only supplied with the papers devoid of truth and in the employ of treason. Thus they are deluded into the belief that Jeff Davis is a Saint and Abraham Lincoln a devil. Many of these miserable tools of designing traitors really love the Union, and religiously believe they are furthering its best interests by adhering to the mongrel gang who prate of "defending their Constitutional liberties against the usurpations of Lincoln's Administration." Were it not for these ignoramuses, the traitors could not muster a corporal's guard to vote for McClellan and Pendleton.

The September number of the Atlantic Monthly contains an interesting and important paper entitled "Our Visit to Richmond," from the pen of J. R. Gilmore, who accompanied Col. Jaques in an interview with Jeff Davis, the one-eyed man of a traitor's destiny. We regret that want of space excludes the article entire from our columns, but we cannot forbear one or two extracts from the reported remarks of Davis, to show how faithfully his sentiments are echoed by the quill-drivers and stump-treason-shriekers of the Northern Copperhead party. The Convention was, of course, private and unofficial; and in reply to an interrogation of one of the Federal visitors, Davis said:

"I desire peace as much as you do; but I feel that not one drop of the blood shed in this war is on my hands; I can look up to my God and say this. I tried all in my power to avert this war. I saw it commencing, and for twelve years I worked night and day to prevent it, but could not. The North was mad and blind; it would not let us govern ourselves; and so the war came, and now it must go on till the last man of this generation falls in his tracks, and his children seize his musket and fight his battles, unless you acknowledge our right to self-government. We are now fighting for independence—and that, or extermination we will have."

"And there are at least four-and-half millions of us left; so you see you have a work before you," said Benjamin with a decided sneer.

This is just the gist of every Copperhead speech made in Oregon. If any man, desiring the restoration of the Union, but intending to vote for McClellan doubts it, let him attend the first or any McClellan speaking in his neighborhood, compare the sentiments uttered with the spirit of the quotation above, and he will find the Copperhead speech but a reflex of Jeff Davis' mind and wishes.

Upon the proposition to amend the Constitution with the concurrence of two-thirds of the States, Davis replied:

That the majority shall decide it, you mean. We seceded to rid ourselves of the rule of the majority, and this would subject us to it again.

The [illegible] Democratic party of to-day are armed to carry out the principles enunciated above by the arch-traitor Davis, to prevent a rule of the majority. And this is modern Democracy.

Here is Davis' proposition for peace. Substitute "they" for "we," and language and all, it is part and parcel of the Copperhead platform:

Withdraw your armies from our territory and peace will come of itself. We do not seek to subjugate you. We are not waging an offensive war, except so far as it is offensive-defensive—that is, so far as we are forced to invade you to prevent your invading us. Let us alone and peace will come at once.

As one of the results of such a peace, it was suggested that disputes would constantly arise between the sections, and cause war. Davis replied:

Not in this—with this generation. You have sown such bitterness at the South, you have put such an ocean of blood between the two sections that I despair of seeing any harmony in my time. Our children may forget this war, but we cannot.

Wherein does McClellan Democracy differ from treason? Is there an utterance of Jefferson Davis not echoed and endorsed by the Northern traitors?

GOT HIS REWARD.—Com. Buchanan, recently captured in Mobile Bay, with the loss of a leg, was formerly a captain in the service of the United States. He is a native of Maryland; and expecting that Maryland would go off with the rebels, he went off in advance. Finding that Maryland held her position in the Union, he was anxious to return to his allegiance and wrote a humiliatory letter to that effect to the President. The reply was that he was disposed to change his allegiance twice in two months—his application was refused—and he remained with the rebels. He lost the Merrimac afterwards, and now has lost his fleet in Mobile Bay, and will carry the evidence of his perjury and infamy to his grave.

Pollard, in his Southern War History, says that McClellan solicited high office from Jefferson Davis early in the war, but when this was done he was lost, as was the case with Buchanan, in the Government service. This can very properly be said of McClellan.

THE [illegible] DELEGATES.—A German going out West was robbed of [illegible] thousand dollars in gold, which he was carrying with him to buy a farm. Three villainous looking individuals in the second-class car were arrested on suspicion and searched, but they proved to be simply delegates to the Chicago Convention.

FROM THE CAPITAL.

[SPECIAL CORRESPONDENCE OF THE DAILY OREGONIAN.]

SALEM, Thursday, Oct. 20.

HOUSE—[illegible] MORNING.

Mr. Lawson offered a Joint Resolution complimenting Secretary of State, Hon. S. E. May, for the efficient manner in which he had discharged the duties of his office [illegible] adopted. In this connection it may not be out of place to say that the ample and explicit report of the Secretary, as printed and laid on the desks of members within a few days past, has much gratified the [illegible] being a thorough review of the business of his office, and giving all the insight that could be desired into the affairs of the State, and of course reflecting much credit upon the Secretary himself.

Quite a debate occurred in the House on a report of Committee on [illegible]—Mr. Waite, chairman, against the adoption of the amendments proposed by Mr. Lane to bill to prevent those who have been engaged in rebellion from voting in this State. The bill had passed the Senate, and as amended, passed the House. The amendment of Mr. Lane allowed persons to vote on taking substantially the Amnesty Proclamation oath; and after discussion, the amendments were reconsidered, and the bill, as it passed the Senate, passed the House.

Mr. Lane filed the protest of himself, Messrs. Cox, Souger and Beall against striking out the amendment in the bill, as in its present state the bill conflicted with the Amnesty Proclamation of President Lincoln, and leaves no way by which those engaged in rebellion can regain their citizenship, as provided in that proclamation; besides which the protest claimed that it would exasperate the South and produce blood-letting, &c.

House bill to repeal Act providing for adjudication of claims against the State of Oregon, was reported back to the House with amendments, and as amended passed the House.

House bill, to provide that the State reimburse the expenses of transporting insane persons to the Asylum, was reported back with amendment; that the State pay the expenses only of those persons who are not citizens of the counties from which they are sent; and as amended, the bill passed the House.

House bill, to provide for location of Insane Asylum and Penitentiary, and the erection of the Penitentiary, was amended and passed.

Mr. Coit introduced a Joint Memorial relative to the location of the Mint at Portland, instead of Dalles, as ordered by Act of Congress.

Mr. Borland considered such action on the part of this Legislature as mere child's play, and asked what business this State had with the location of public buildings of the United States at the Dalles, Portland or any other place.

Mr. Coit followed his introduction of the resolution with the following remarks:

Representing, as he did, the mining interests of the eastern part of this State, he had taken pains to ascertain the wishes, not only of his section, but of the whole mining region that finds its natural outlet by the way of the Columbia river, and who would be interested in the location of a Mint upon that line of travel, and he had become convinced that he represented the unanimous wish of those with whom he had met, merchants, freighters and miners, representing all the region alluded to, when he introduced the resolution under discussion. Those who wanted to deposit their treasure at the Mint, would arrive at the Dalles after the business hours were over, and would leave by steamer before the business hours commenced, which, under all circumstances, would cause a delay, and they would then be compelled to remain for some time to realize upon the deposit, or receive a Mint certificate, which under very many circumstances would have to be disposed of to bankers or brokers in Portland. Under these circumstances, few would be benefitted save the hotel keepers and office holders at the Dalles, and perhaps the brokers and bankers at Portland; while were the Mint at Portland, it would most undoubtedly better accommodate the general interests of our State, and of the Territories to the eastward, rich in mineral wealth; and will far better subserve the wants of the mining region springing into importance along the western foothills of the Cascade range, that promised to rival in richness and extent any other mining region known to us.

For these, and many other reasons stated by him, in a speech that commanded the attention and respect of the House, Mr. Coit said he should vote for the Joint Memorial.

Mr. Lane stated, that while he regretted to differ from the gentleman from Wasco, he believed the Mint was intended for the benefit of Oregon, and he wished to see it located where it will answer the best interests of the vast mining region that is drained by the waters of the Columbia river. He should represent the wishes of his constituents by voting for the memorial.

Mr. Underwood spoke of the extent of our mining interests generally, and as developing in the foothills and mountains of the Cascade range, the numerous roads building to transport the products of our valleys to the wide mining section to the east of us; that the teamster and packer returning from the sale of their cargoes, would bring back gold dust in large quantities; that the loss to follow, should the Mint be located at the Dalles, and necessitate the shipment of all the treasure that might be mined in, or be received for products of the Willamette Valley, would be the loss only of the miner and the producer. Portland is the general business centre of the State, which the Dalles is not and can never be, and it is not easy to read the motive that caused the Mint to be located there, despite the wish of the people of Oregon, expressed through the unanimous vote of the last Legislative Assembly.

Mr. Bowlby said the last Legislative Assembly had instructed our Senators and requested our Representative to secure if possible a mint for Oregon, and its location at Portland, but they had failed to do so. He believed Portland to be the proper place for the mint, and should favor the memorial.

Mr. Lawson considered that Portland was the point where business centered, and where the mint should naturally be located.

The memorial passed the House. Ayes 32; Noes 4. Those voting no were Messrs. Borland, Chaplin, Fisher, Gillette, and it will probably receive the support of the Senate.

Mr. Borland introduced a resolution to the effect that our Congressmen should be instructed to use all the means they may or can possibly obtain, for the removal of all public institutions in the States of Oregon and California and Territories of Idaho and Washington, and that the same be located at the city of Portland, Oregon, which I believe was not passed as I found the original under the clerk's table. I suppose, however, the resolution was introduced to give vent to feelings of indignation, which were rather ungenerously deprived of utterance, by the previous question being carried.

The following bills were passed by the House:

A Bill to provide for the division of Douglas county.

Bill to change the boundaries of Salem.

Bill to incorporate Canyon City.

Bill providing for the adoption of children.

Bill to regulate salaries of County Judges.

Bill to apportion the State into Senatorial and Representative districts.

AFTERNOON.

SENATE.—Bill to encourage good conduct in convicts in the Penitentiary, passed.

Bill to regulate terms of Circuit Court, passed.

Bill to regulate State Library, passed.

At three o'clock the two Houses met in Joint Convention to elect pilot commissioners for the Columbia river bar, commissioners to locate Penitentiary and Insane Asylum, and State Librarian.

E. L. [illegible] was elected State Librarian.

Messrs. Ketchum, Taylor and Couch were elected Pilot Commissioners.

Messrs. Cornelius and Moores, Commissioners to locate Penitentiary and Insane Asylum.

Mr. Shipley presented—to be treasured in the archives of the State—the tomahawk left by [illegible], known to have been used in completing the massacre of Dr. Whitman and family, which was donated by Wm. Logan, Esq., of Dalles City, to the Secretary, and which was purchased by subscription to be thus donated to the State. Mr. Shipley explained the history of the tomahawk. The Speaker and President received this memento of our early history with appropriate addresses and remarks. Mr. Thornton donated a lock of hair taken from the head of Mrs. Whitman after her death, in possession of Mr. Thornton, which by a vote of the Convention was received. The occasion was interesting and would bear more ample report, but the columns of the OREGONIAN afford room in this hurried state of the session. Convention adjourned.

HOUSE [illegible] AFTER THE CONVENTION.

Joint resolution was offered by Mr. Thornton, relating to 90,000 acres of land donated by Congress for the endowment of Agricultural College, providing to give it to some University that would accept it upon certain conditions.

Mr. Quick moved to fill the blank in the resolution with Willamette University, which was lost, and he then moved to lay the resolution on the [illegible] the [illegible] not being filled, the result would be [illegible].

The resolution [illegible] on the table [illegible].

I have [illegible] that late last evening of the Senate bill to repeal the act of 1862 [illegible] the [illegible] of the State [illegible] to the United States [illegible] passed the Senate and was indefinitely postponed in the House.

After reading several bills second time and adopting [illegible] amendments, the House adjourned [illegible] evening.

EVENING SESSION.

Bill providing that the State shall pay expenses of certain insane persons to the Asylum, passed. This relates to persons not residents of the counties from which they are sent.

Bill relating to distribution of estates, passed.

Bill relating to Justices of the Peace and Constables, passed.

Bill relating to Penitentiary, providing officers and relating to conduct of, passed.

Bill regulating office of District Attorney, passed.

Bill to incorporate churches and other societies, passed.

Somebody has called my attention to the fact that the House yesterday passed 46 bills after 12 o'clock, and that it was not a good day for bills either.

Bill to dispose of the different kinds of money in the State treasury, passed.

Bill relating to the qualification and election of clerks, sheriffs and coroners, passed.

Bill relating to county treasurers, passed.

Bill defining treason against the State, passed.

Bill relating to Presidential Electors, passed.

Bill relating to Assessors, passed.

HOUSE MEMORIAL IN THE SENATE RELATIVE TO THE MINT.

Mr. [illegible] from the Committee on Federal Relations reported favorably to the memorial.

Mr. Donnell, minority of the Committee, reported against the memorial, and in his report claimed that the memorial if passed would very likely hinder the Oregon mint being created for years, instead of procuring its location at Portland, which place was not on the line of travel, &c. The question being stated, Mr. Donnell said he protested against the adoption of the memorial. He believed the mint was located at the Dalles by Congress for the purpose of the accommodation of the miners of the Columbia and its tributaries. Our Representatives knew that the Dalles was the best place to accommodate these great mining districts. It was nearest the mines and most accessible. At times the Columbia river was frozen over and Portland could not be reached by the miners. Portland claimed that she had the money to buy the dust and the mint should be located there to give her merchants and bankers a chance to shave the miner. For these reasons, he being disposed to befriend the miner, and believing that the Dalles deserved to retain what had been so properly located there by Congress, he should vote against the memorial. Mr. Donnell made an earnest appeal on behalf of the Dalles.

Mr. Page wished to influence no one, but should name the motives influencing him to vote as he should. He represented here, the interests of Baker and Umatilla counties, and the State at large. Expected to receive a severe overhauling from the Mountaineer, but he had sufficient "back bone," the Mountaineer having charged him with the want of it, to vote for the interests of the whole State. La Grande merchants, he knew from his own conversation with them, favored the Mint at Portland. He recognized Portland as the commercial emporium of the State, and the general center of business and the place that is the most suitable for the mint.

Mr. Palmer said the location of the Mint at the Dalles was, on the part of our Senators and Representative in Congress, a flagrant violation of the expressed will of the people, and he did not hesitate to express his opinion about it.

Mr. Grim spoke at some length, claiming that our Congressmen were making a "flank movement" for the Senatorship in locating the Mint at the Dalles, and compared it to McClellan's campaign on the Peninsula.

Mr. Curl should vote against the memorial because politics was dragged into it.

Mr. Frazer thought the other memorial did no good, and did not intend to get on his knees to Congress, though he favored the memorial. Congress did not mind what we said before, and he thought would not mind us now, but he was not going to ask them to. On the final vote it stood—ayes 12, noes 4. Noes—Messrs. Curl, [illegible], [illegible], Frazer. And so the memorial passed both houses.

Qualifications of Voters.

An opinion is widely prevalent that citizens of the United States have the privilege of voting at the Presidential election in any State in which they may happen to be. This notion is altogether erroneous. Turning to the Constitution of the United States, Art. II, Sec. 1, we find that—

"Each State shall appoint, in such manner as the legislature thereof may direct, a number of electors," &c., &c.

The Constitution of this State, Art. II, Sec. [illegible], requires that every native born citizen who claims to be a qualified voter in any election, shall be the age of twenty-one years, and that he shall have resided in the State six months immediately preceding such election.

The Legislature of Oregon (See General Laws of 1860, page 32) provided that there should be chosen every four years by the qualified voters of this State as many electors of President and Vice President as this State may be entitled to elect, &c.

It will be seen from the foregoing that the Constitution of the United States devolves upon each State the duty of prescribing the manner in which electors for President and Vice President shall be chosen; that the Constitution of this State mentions with particularity the qualifications of voters in all elections, and that the Sessions Laws of 1860 state explicitly that these electors shall be chosen by the qualified voters of this State.

Hence the law is plain that those persons who have but very recently arrived in this State by the overland route will be excluded from voting. It is expected that many, particularly those of the "Democratic" faith, will offer their votes, though having no right to do so; for that party has no scruples about the means it employs to enable it to succeed. Union men everywhere are called upon to be on their guard to prevent illegal voting, and the Union press of this State may do good service by calling the attention of the people to the provisions of the law in regard to this matter.

THE REBELS DON'T LIKE WEST POINTERS.—They have at least one West Point ingrate from Oregon—and he deserted his flag; and recently Lt. [illegible], discharged from the army for disloyalty, and who has been bumming about Victoria for some time, is understood to have left that city to join his friends in the South—rather a late-in-the-day affair, as we think. The Richmond Examiner will not go anything on its West Point friends. It thinks that a war school of four years a much better school than West Point. It thinks West Point graduates are not fit for the rank they hold and reflect but little credit on the army. The Examiner goes on to say:

"If a commanding General has suffered his forces to be surprised, it too often turns out that he was a West Pointer. That was a West Pointer who handed over a great fortress the other day to the enemy, &c. In the course of its long growl on the subject, the Examiner says that "even Yankee birth and breeding is no bar to employment and promotion in the Confederate army, provided the Yankee is only a graduate of West Point."

"There is a contracted and illiberal, and, indeed, highly insolent spirit, (which we will call West Pointism,) which seeks to keep up a kind of esprit du corps between the graduates of that academy in the two hostile armies."

For once we agree with the Examiner, in its estimate of the West Pointers, who have so joined themselves in taking appointments in the rebel army. God be thanked that the end of these [illegible] scoundrels is near at hand.

LATER FROM THE EAST.

Dates to October 20.

Great Battle in Shenandoah Valley!

SHERIDAN VICTORIOUS!

The Rebels, under Longstreet, utterly Defeated and Flying for Safety!

43 Pieces Artillery and a great many Prisoners Captured.

CEDAR CREEK, VA., Oct. 19.—To Lieutenant General Grant:—I have the honor to report that my army at Cedar Creek was attacked this morning before daylight. My left was turned and driven in confusion with the loss of 20 pieces of artillery. I hastened from Winchester and found the army between Middletown and Newtown having been driven back 4 miles. I took affairs in hand, quickly uniting the corps and formed a compact line of battle in time to repulse the attack of the enemy, which was done handsomely about 1 o'clock P. M. At 3 o'clock, after some charges of cavalry from left to the right flank, I attacked the enemy with great vigor, driving and routing them, capturing according to the last accounts 43 pieces of artillery and very many prisoners. I don't know yet the number of [illegible] or losses of the enemy. Wagon trains and ambulances and [illegible] in large numbers are in our possession. The enemy burned some of their trains. Gen. Ramseur is a prisoner in our hands, and is severely wounded. I have to regret the loss of Gen. Bidwell killed, and Gens. Wright, Grover and Ricketts wounded. The battle at times looked badly, but by the gallantry of our brave officers the disaster has been converted into a splendid victory. Darkness intervened to shut off greater results. I now occupy Strasburg.

SHERIDAN.

The enemy's force is not yet reported, but the boldness, vigor and success of the attack strongly indicates that heavy reinforcements have been sent from Richmond with the expectation of fulfilling Longstreet's boast to smash Sheridan. Longstreet had assumed command and confidently hoped to overwhelm with disaster the Union cause, it was boastfully expressed by the rebel authorities.

STANTON.

NEW YORK, Oct. 20.—The particulars of the raid into Luray's Valley say, we captured [illegible] cattle, [illegible] horses, [illegible] mules and destroyed a tannery containing $100,000 worth of leather, and laid the country entirely a waste from New Market to Woodville, also in a circuit to Madison, Little Washington back to Luray and thence to Front Royal.

ST. LOUIS, Oct. 19.—One hundred rebels under Col. [illegible] entered Lexington to-day and all the male citizens between the age of 17 and [illegible] were mustered into the Confederate army. Five hundred men under Shelby captured Paris, Monroe county, and are conscripting all able bodied men for the rebel service. On Friday 200 rebels entered Brunswick. Eight hundred are reported at Keytesville the same day. There is an expedition evidently against the Hannibal and St. Joseph Railroad to destroy it. The garrison at Glasgow fought bravely [illegible] hours but were obliged to surrender.

LEXINGTON, KY., Oct. 20.—Col. Butler encountered guerrilla Jessee at Mud Lick Springs yesterday and killed and wounded 20 of his men.

QUEBEC, Oct. 19.—After long discussion the Canada Confederation has been decided on. Its main principles are arranged and only the details remain to be fixed. Great difficulty was the proportionate representation of the Colonies in the Upper House. It is now decided that Nova Scotia, New Brunswick and Prince Edward's Island are to have twenty-four members, New Foundland four and Upper and Lower Canada twenty-four each.

Cleanse the Blood.

WITH corrupt, disordered or vitiated Blood you must be sick all over. It may burst out in pimples or sores, or in some active disease, or it may merely keep you listless, depressed and good for nothing. But you cannot have good health while your blood is impure. Sarsaparilla purges out these impurities and stimulates the organs of life into vigorous action, restoring the health and expelling disease. Hence it rapidly cures a variety of complaints which are caused by impurities of the blood, such as Scrofula or King's Evil, Tumors, Ulcers, Sores, Eruptions, Pimples, Blotches, Boils, St. Anthony's Fire, Rose or Erysipelas, Tetter or Salt Rheum, Scald Head, Ring Worm, Cancer or Cancerous Tumors, Sore eyes, Female Diseases, such as Retention, Irregularity, Suppression, Whites, Sterility, Syphilis or Venereal Diseases, Liver Complaints and Heart Diseases.

BLOOD AND LIVER.

This valuable medicine is now available to the public for the cure of
SCROFULA, CONSUMPTION, RHEUMATISM, CANCER,
HEART, LIVER AND KIDNEY DISEASES,
NEURALGIA, NERVOUS AFFECTIONS, DYSPEPSIA,
BRONCHITIS, &c.

AS A TONIC,

its operations are evinced by strengthening the digestive organs and increasing the appetite. In cases of Dyspepsia, Emaciation and Debility, it improves nutrition of the body by the [illegible] of Iodine. The patient recovers flesh, strength and color, hitherto pale, relaxed and feeble, he becomes full, strong and florid.

Are you sick, feeble and complaining? Are you out of order, with your system deranged and your feelings uncomfortable? These symptoms are often the prelude to serious illness. Some fit of sickness is creeping upon you, and should be averted by a timely use of the right remedy. Take Le Doyen's Sarsaparilla, and cleanse out the disordered humors—purify the blood, and let the fluids move on unobstructed in health again.

AS A LITHONTRIPTIC,

it has no equal; being chemically combined with Iodine, it possesses in a high degree the power of dissolving Stone in the Bladder, and gravel of the Kidneys, preventing gravel formations, calculous of the prostrate gland, irritation of the neck of the bladder, dropsy, etc.

AS A SPRING REMEDY, to purify and cleanse the Blood leaving it free from all humors and impurities, we assert with [illegible]

BOILS.

WE READ THAT ONE OF the sorest afflictions that the patient Job was called upon to bear was that of boils, and they have been found to be, from that time to the present, the most troublesome and painful of visitors. We have known instances where individuals were sure to have these eruptions break out upon them once a month at least. They show an impure state of the blood, and that humor of some kind is lurking there, and the overplus of corruption is actually forced to the surface of the body, making its appearance in the form of Boils. Now, is it not best at once to purify the system? Do you ask what will do this? We answer, Scovill's Blood and Liver Syrup. It is curing humors in every form, and there is not a State in the Union where it has not accomplished the most astonishing cures.

The memorial [illegible] was introduced [illegible] county, a man of wealth [illegible] mining district and whose [illegible] appreciate [illegible] the Assembly [illegible] OREGONIAN cannot but [illegible] been well sustained and [illegible] Whatever reasons [illegible] disregarding the action of the [illegible] we hope the action of the [illegible] command the respect of Congress [illegible] or not, will receive [illegible] the wrong of our own delegation [illegible] to cherish unnecessary grudges [illegible] willing to bear malice [illegible] the floor of the Senate [illegible] mercial emporium of our State [illegible] of the public in [illegible] the State with [illegible] bounds. The location of the Penitentiary and Insane Asylum, is a [illegible] necessary to remove them [illegible] the Capital [illegible] now desire is to [illegible] the consideration due to its commercial position and to have located in our midst the institutions that [illegible] incident to our commercial [illegible] but also to the business relations we bear to the world at large.

HURRAH FOR JEFF DAVIS.—[illegible] evening last, a party of men on horseback [illegible] through Front street in this city hurrahing for Jeff Davis, cursing "Abe Lincoln" and [illegible] threatening any persons who should [illegible] them. They had just enough "[illegible]" in them to make them give vent to their rebellious feelings, and we doubt if any Union man could have done better service to his country than by converting himself into a "Volunteer" for the suppression of that portion of the rebel [illegible] Marshal Hoyt and Deputy Sheriff [illegible] were informed of the circumstance [illegible] pursuit of the rebels, but on arriving at [illegible] where they had put up their horses [illegible] "friends" of the party had [illegible] got them out of the way. Now, for the benefit of all whom it may concern, we [illegible] understood that Portland is a loyal city, and such scenes will not be tolerated within our borders. It may be that we are wasting [illegible] to the matter, as generally men [illegible] care for, but the proceeding was too shameful to pass unnoticed.

POLICE BUSINESS.—The past week has been an [illegible] time among our officials both city and county [illegible] have had many intimations of what they [illegible] doing, but the intelligence [illegible] of a [illegible] character. Enough is known however [illegible] could be advanced by us for the purpose [illegible] one point: that our [illegible] detective [illegible] city police are entirely [illegible] for even the immediate wants of preserving this community. The best evidence is not lacking to show that there is a want of greater efficiency in this respect [illegible] men who can in every way be trusted [illegible] in that behalf, for the protection of the city. There are no complaints to enter [illegible] some of them are in the habit of doing [illegible] more than they get pay for [illegible] the best they can under the existing circumstances. The new charter provides for relief in this [illegible] and the establishment of [illegible] police should be one of the first duties of the Council under the provisions of this instrument.

TROTTING.—The match of the day, over the [illegible] Saturday afternoon, was trotting one mile [illegible] for a purse of $100. But one horse was [illegible] Fly by Night, and the judges think [illegible] that he should [illegible] against time with a running horse [illegible] Mr. H. W. Reed kindly offered her horse [illegible] The horses were called for the first trot [illegible] three o'clock which was trotted without [illegible] 2:52. The second mile was [illegible] in 2 [illegible] the best time ever made in Oregon [illegible] of Emigrant, made at the State Fair [illegible] A running match between three horses [illegible] owned by E. H. Day, Esq., concluded the day's sport.

THE GLASS BLOWERS.—Every one visiting the exhibition of the Glass Blowers this afternoon will receive a prize, consisting of an article of worked glass. A reduction in the price of admission to children has been made for the benefit of school [illegible] This evening the Mechanics' Brass Band will enliven the entertainment, having volunteered their services on the occasion. Steam will be raised in the Glass Engine at 2 o'clock and 7 o'clock P.M., and the doors will open immediately thereafter for the exhibition. To-day will be the last of the [illegible]

"A PRINT" IN LUCK.—W. A. Daly, Esq., an old Oregonian, and formerly for many years in the [illegible] times of our State, a printer in this establishment, has at length received an office. He is becoming quite grey with age, his locks are like the frosts of winter, and it is high time he was [illegible] some recompense for the political [illegible] he has argued for years, if his friends ever [illegible] balance in his favor. He has spent most of his time devoted to the idols of [illegible] and has been elevated to the position of Clerk of Boise county, Idaho.

TURN VEREIN HALL.—The accident that left this building without a roof a short time since while it was being moved to another part of the [illegible] has had an effect similar to a purification, and the [illegible] resulted in good if anything [illegible] may now well congratulate themselves upon the [illegible] appearance of their building [illegible] being on First street [illegible] from any direction, will probably [illegible] attendance at every meeting.

[illegible] OF THE RANKS.—Governor Gibbs [illegible] received a telegram at the State Capital from Major General McDowell, saying [illegible] Oregon Volunteer Infantry [illegible] impossible. This is probably [illegible] that will soon [illegible] in this Military District [illegible] the withdrawal from service of [illegible] Volunteers, at the expiration of their term of enlistment.

INDIAN FIGHT.—By last night [illegible] we have information of a conflict between the Indians and the Volunteers under Capt. [illegible] in which [illegible] the latter were repulsed [illegible] It is stated that the [illegible] the Canyon City [illegible] preparations for defense.

THE VOTE OF THE SOLDIERS.—Nearly one hundred soldiers probably voted in Burlington yesterday, and it is safe to say nine-tenths voted the Union ticket. They did so, too, with a perfect understanding of what they were about, and an appreciation of the issue which it was refreshing to see. With very few exceptions appeals to the Democrats among them to stand by their old party, and not to go back on "Little Mac" had no more effect on them than the wind. As one of them, wounded in one of the recent battles, came limping up the steps of the Town Hall, a Democratic ticket-vender thrust the Copperhead State ticket into his hand. He took the vote, looked at it very deliberately, and then with a dry emphasis which added greatly to the effect of his words said, "What a [illegible] fool I should be, go down and fight rebels for three years with my musket, and then come here to stab myself in the back with a piece of paper like that. No!" throwing the vote for Redfield & Co. from him, and drawing his forefinger across his throat with a slow, resolute action, "I'd cut my throat before I'd vote that ticket." That's the way the soldiers feel.—Burlington Vt., Free Press, September 7th.

THOMAS JEFFERSON ON PUBLIC DANGER.—In a letter from Monticello to J. B. Colvin, Sept. 20th, 1810, Mr. Jefferson says:

"The question you propose whether circumstances do not sometimes occur which make it a duty in an officer of high trust to assume authorities beyond the law, is easy of solution in principle, but sometimes embarrassing in practice. A strict observance of written laws is doubtless one of the highest duties of a good citizen, but it is not the highest. The laws of necessity, of self-preservation, of saving our country when in danger, are of higher obligation. To lose our country by a scrupulous adherence to written law would be to lose itself with life, liberty, property and all those who are enjoying them with us, thus absurdly sacrificing the end to the means."

GEN. ROSECRANS IN CHICAGO.—General Rosecrans being in Chicago on Saturday the 27th day of August, he was introduced on 'Change. His speech was brief. Here it is: "Gentlemen, I came into this city by accident, and I had no intention of appearing before you at such a time [laughter and cheers], but if you will keep it secret until ten o'clock to-night, I will be out of the way. I thank you for this kind reception. The name of the Chicago Board of Trade is not new to me; it is well known by our gallant soldiers, and we often hear of it at the front. You are a great heart which throbs and pulsates with the cause of the Union, and you are not aware how much good you have done by your almost unexampled patriotism. You have given a great blow for your country. God bless you." The apology for being in the city, at the time when so many of its enemies were gathered, was a sore thrust at the Copperheads.

SIGNS OF THE TIMES.—Things begin to look very squally for the Quaker Democracy. Symptoms of "caving in" are visible in every quarter. The defections from the Copperhead ranks throughout the country are frightfully numerous and daily increasing. Scarcely an interior paper reaches us that does not contain a list of the names of prominent men who have come over to the Union cause.—S. F. Flag.
